"Walking Shield's staff provided me with invaluable support during my academic journey. They assisted me in obtaining my Bachelor's degree in Communication Disorders and ensured that my time at the University was a stress-free one. Between the academic support, the steady scholarships, and the supportive team, Walking Shield made sure I didn't have to worry about school related necessities. Today, I currently hold a board-certification as a Speech Language Pathologist Assistant and work in an Orange County school district. I am forever grateful to Walking Shield and the entire team."
